

After we see the friendly dinosaurs, we decide to head over to the Alphabet People's playground to have some fun playing.

First we decide to try playing on the gym bar.

In "gym" which we spell g-y-m, "m" and "y" are used to tell you how our arms move.

The letters in the word "gym" which we spell g-y-m mean: g - up high, y - from a "y" shape, m - to an "m" shape. Or, "gym", which we spell g-y-m tells us how to climb up on the bar.

"Swim" is another word that uses "w" and "m" the same way "gym" uses "y" and "m", so you can figure "swim" out with a friend or by yourself, if you like.
